David,

The National Indian Youth Leadership Project would like to invite you to a special event, on June 22nd, at the Manitou Gallery, on Palace Ave. in Santa Fe. The Drums for Change reception and fundraiser is a celebration of NIYLP's new programs in Santa Fe. NIYLP is a New Mexico based Native nonprofit for over 30 years and is the parent organization of Project Venture, an internationally recognized Evidence-based program, serving Native youth in the mainland US, Hawaii, Alaska and Canada. Project Venture has been implemented in several tribal communities around Santa Fe, including Santo Domingo, San Felipe, Zia, Cochiti, Five Sandoval and Taos. The new grant will bring our programming to Santa Fe Indian School and the Santa Fe Public Schools Native American Student Services program.

The Drums for Change reception will feature a silent auction of hand drums, painted by well-known artists, as well as Native music and an opportunity to meet and talk with NIYLP staff and Board members. Please join us from 6-8 pm on June 22nd at the Manitou Gallery, 123 Palace Ave. in Santa Fe. Please RSVP to Sheri, at 505-554-2289.

Sincerely,

McClellan (Mac) Hall
Founder, NIYLP
Developer of Project Venture
