

Poetry Ourselves New Mexico Guidelines

Poetry Ourselves New Mexico is a statewide original poetry competition for students in grades 9-12. This creative writing competition compliments the NM Poetry Out Loud recitation program rounding out a student's opportunity to study and recite masterworks in poetry alongside their own journey of self-expression. Find more information here: www.nmarts.org/poetry-out-loud/

Eligibility

- Any student currently enrolled in grades 9-12 in the state of New Mexico is eligible.
- Submit (1) original poem, typed and no longer than 50 lines via online submission form. Selected students may be requested to resubmit poem via Word Document or PDF.
- Poem must be original and composed only by the student who is submitting it.
- Poem may focus on any topic, but students should remember that winning entries may be presented to the public. New Mexico Arts and the Poetry Out Loud New Mexico program reserve the right to disqualify poems deemed inappropriate in subject matter or language.
- Non-English poems are allowed but will need to be accompanied by an English translation/transcript for judging purposes.
- Students may participate in Poetry Ourselves written competition and/or the Poetry Out Loud recitation competition. Students can self-submit (1) poem to the Poetry Ourselves written competition. Participation in the Poetry Out Loud recitation program requires school registration.
