

Weaving Colors:

AUTISM & THE NATIVE COMMUNITY

---

A presentation series for families dedicated to discussing important topics on autism and how they are viewed and addressed in the native culture.

Join us Wed. March 15th 2023

1 - 2:30pm MST

Autism and Lessons of Female Rain: A Diné mother's perspective of disability and advocacy for culturally-sustaining practices of care.

Presenter: Sandra Yellowhorse-Kapeli

Mother, scholar, teacher, advocate, community member and international PhD Candidate at Te Puna Wananga, School of Maori and Indigenous Education at the University of Auckland in New Zealand. My research focuses on Diné perspectives of disability.

To register, please scan the QR code or Click HERE

HSC-AutismPrograms@salud.unm.edu

